Teddy bears and perfumes: advertising information - knowledge management at its best!

Burke, ME

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Teddy bears and perfumes: advertising information - knowledge management at its best!</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Authors</td>
<td>Burke, ME</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Type</td>
<td>Conference or Workshop Item</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>URL</td>
<td>This version is available at: http://usir.salford.ac.uk/1880/</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Published Date</td>
<td>1998</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

USIR is a digital collection of the research output of the University of Salford. Where copyright permits, full text material held in the repository is made freely available online and can be read, downloaded and copied for non-commercial private study or research purposes. Please check the manuscript for any further copyright restrictions.

For more information, including our policy and submission procedure, please contact the Repository Team at: usir@salford.ac.uk.
Teddy Bears and Perfumes -

Advertising Information: Knowledge Management at its best
Introduction

• Market classifications
• Factors affecting markets
• Factors affecting knowledge management
• Future changes
Definitions

• Defining marketing
• Defining knowledge management
• Relationship between knowledge management and marketing
Market Classifications

- Consumer and industrial markets
- Goods and services
- Geography
Factors affecting markets

- Transport facilities
- Environmental concerns
- Prices
- General social and economic factors
Factors affecting knowledge management

- Group dynamics
- Technology
- Professional skills
- Facilities
- Organization structure
Future changes

• Knowledge mangers -
  – ready for dramatic changes need to position services and activities carefully
  – Be aware of rapidity of change
  – Organizations rely more and more on KM to collect, interpret and add - value to the information needed to produce the product or service
Conclusions

• Discussed definition of KM and marketing
• Looked at relationship between KM and marketing
• Market classifications
• Factors affecting way the markets behave and way in which KM are able to operate
• Future changes
Conclusions

Whether marketing Teddy Bears to children at Christmas or highly prized perfumes to a select market, the keys to success must be:

Marketing the product

Can only be done through the skills of a finely honed knowledge management team