User Survey 2008
Gambling and Debt - about the survey
Manchester Metropolitan University (MMU) and The Salvation Army, supported by GamCare and the Money Advice Trust, are carrying out a survey to find out more about the impact of gambling on people’s finances. Our intention is that the survey results will help improve gambling and debt related support services in the future.

This survey asks you questions about your current financial situation and any gambling activities that you may take part in. It should only take about 10-15 minutes of your time. Throughout the questionnaire you are given the opportunity to say ‘don’t know’ or ‘prefer not to say’ in reply to any question if you wish. Most questions ask you to place a tick in the box provided and/or may ask you to provide some additional information as well.

The information we record on this questionnaire will be kept completely confidential and all information you provide will be recorded on a completely anonymous basis. It will be passed on to researchers from MMU, who will ensure that the information you provide is kept securely stored. You are not asked to provide your name at any point during the survey. If you find the research interesting and would like to participate in a short interview as part of the study, please contact Ryan Woollych (contact details below) who will arrange a convenient time.

If you have any problems completing the survey or would like to speak to a member of the research team, then please contact: Ryan Woollych, MMU, Hathersage Road, Manchester, M13-OJA. Tel 0161 247 2770, e-mail: r.woollych@mmu.ac.uk.

Before you start, please tick the following boxes to confirm that you are happy to take part in the survey and understand the terms on which you are providing information.

I agree that I have:
( ) read the information above.
( ) received satisfactory answers to any questions I may have had about the research.

I understand that:
( ) I am free to withdraw from the study at any time if I wish and if I choose to do this, there will be no further contact from the researchers.
( ) Any personal information I provide will be treated as strictly confidential.
( ) I can refuse to answer any question.
( ) Confidentiality and anonymity will be maintained and it will not be possible to identify me from any publications.

INTERVIEW INFORMATION SHEET
GAMBLING AND DEBT PROJECT

What is the aim of the interview?

The aim of the interview is to find out about your experiences of gambling- and debt and the impact that this has had on your life. The interviews may also ask you about any previous experiences of working with gambling and debt advice agencies. Feel free to tell us as little or as much as you want about these issues. Some areas are sensitive which you may not wish to talk to the researcher about so feel free to refuse to answer.

Why have I been invited?

As a person who has previously suffered problems with gambling or debt your experience and perspectives are important to the research. Your contribution is very important to us and will help us understand the links between gambling and debt.

What will happen with the interview findings?

All interviews will be conducted by a researcher who will present a number of issues for discussion. The researcher will ensure that everyone is given the opportunity to contribute. Your findings will be tape recorded and transcribed for analysis. In all publications the results will be written in such a way that no one can infer that the data corresponds to you.
What can I expect from my involvement?

The interviews are part of a pathfinder study being undertaken by Manchester Metropolitan University in partnership with the Salvation Army, Money Advice Trust and Gamcare. A gambling and debt survey has already been undertaken. Focus groups are scheduled for early 2009 with professionals in the area of gambling and debt. A final report of this study will be made publicly available in August 2009.

What prompted you to seek help and advice for your problems?

Was your experience of seeking help and advice positive or negative? Why?

In what ways could improvements be made to the help and advice that people received for their gambling or debt problems?
ELITE INTERVIEW AGENDA
GAMBLING AND DEBT PROJECT

Has your organisation a set of policies for dealing with defaulting customers?

a. At what level are these set?
b. Is there any flexibility in these policies?

What are the overall aims in dealing with defaulting customers? (rapid settlement, affordable settlement, securing the debt)?

Are you aware of any particular triggers for default?

Are there patterns of customer behaviour that might alert you to developing problems?

Do your staff question customers about underlying problems that might impact on their ability to maintain payments?

Have you heard of customers defaulting because of addictive behaviours? (drugs, alcohol, gambling)
Would your company attitudes towards a defaulting customer change if you felt the customer had contributed to their problems by behaving rashly?

Would you regard defaults relating to customers where there was evidence (e.g., from statements of account) of repeated or heavy gambling as falling into the category of rash behaviour or would you be more likely to accept that problem gambling is an illness/addiction?

Does your organisation agree payment plans with third-party charitable advice agencies?

Does your organisation agree payment plans with debt management companies? What other methods would you employ to help retrieve monies owed?
FOCUS GROUP SCHEDULE
GAMBLING AND DEBT PROJECT

26TH February, Manchester Metropolitan University, Manchester.

19TH March, Salvation Army HQ, London

1. What are the difficulties in establishing whether clients have gambling-related debt problems?

2. How do your respective organisations approach clients where gambling problems are evident either via self declaration or objective evidence (debit or credit card statement entries etc.)?

3. Does this approach work? (prompt: what works well, what doesn’t) If not, what types of different approaches might be necessary?

4. Are there any preventative, early indicators in place to identify problem gamblers? If so, how do they work? Are they effective?

5. In what ways might we work towards meeting the challenges talked about in this focus group today? What are the key priorities? How would you shape services? What would be most useful (screen, outreach, education)

6. Are they any institutional or organisational barriers which prevent identifying or treating individuals with gambling related debt?

GAMBLING AND DEBT FOCUS GROUP

INFORMATION SHEET

DATE: 26TH February 2008

TIME: 1:30 – 4pm

VENUE: Formal Meeting Room, Elizabeth Gaskell Building, Manchester Metropolitan University, Hathersage Road, M13-OJA

What is the aim of the focus group?

To bring together representatives from a diverse range of credit institutions, gambling organisations and advice agencies to share experiences, engage in active dialogue and identify priority areas for addressing gambling-related debt in the UK.

Why have I been invited?

It is recognised that a multi-agency response is needed to address the multi-faceted problems that people experience as a direct result of gambling-related debt. This focus group intends to gauge the industry response to the challenges of gambling-related debt in the UK. Your experience and perspectives are important to addressing this problem.

What will happen with the focus group findings?

The focus groups are the final data collection phase of a pathfinder study being undertaken by Manchester Metropolitan University in partnership with the Salvation Army, Money Advice Trust and Gamcare. A gambling and debt survey has already been undertaken, followed by in-depth interviews with individuals currently experiencing gambling and debt problems. A final report of this study will be made publicly available in August 2009.

What can I expect from my involvement?

All focus groups will be led by a facilitator who will present a number of issues for discussion. The facilitator will control the discussion to ensure that everyone is given the opportunity to contribute. Your findings will be tape recorded and transcribed for analysis. Although your comments will be shared with other focus group members, in all publications the results will be written in such a way that no one can infer that the data corresponds to you.

Methodology

Qualitative data analysis

Transcription data from the interviews and focus groups was imported into the qualitative software NVivo. The interviewee data was thematically analysed (coded) and the results written-up. Analytical steps in this thematic analysis involved the six key stages of: familiarisation (reading and rereading transcripts and notes, identifying initial ideas); code generation (systematic identification of interesting ideas); theme identification (collating codes into potential themes supported by relevant data); review (holistically checking themes against data and creating thematic map); labelling themes (refining specifics of themes and defining holistic analytical accounts in relation to research questions) and report writing (in which ongoing final analysis is formed) (Braun and Clarke, 2006).

Ethics

Informed consent was acquired from all participants for the interviews and focus groups conducted in the research. An information sheet was also provided to each participant, detailing the main aims and objectives of the study and a contact number provided for any enquiries (see Appendix I). Permission was granted from the GamCare administrators to use the GamCare Forum entries. All posts are in the public domain. However, as an extra measure, user names have been substituted with fictitious aliases. All organisational and other contextual data which might have identified individuals was removed.

Research ethics protocols were submitted to and granted by Manchester Metropolitan University Ethics Committee and researchers adhered throughout to the ethical guidelines identified by the Social Research Association (2003) and the British Psychological Society (2005). These include:

- Avoiding undue intrusion into the personal and private domain of research participants. The privacy of participants was respected at all times and any issues identified by participants as sensitive were treated confidentially. All names, places and organisations which might have identified individuals were substituted with pseudonyms for reproduction in the final report.

- Obtaining informed consent. Research participants were informed about the aims and objectives of the research, their role within the study, and the intended uses of the project findings. This information was made available through participant information sheets. Express signed or oral consent was acquired from all participants. All research participants were given the option to withdraw themselves and their data at any time up until the production of the final report.

- Protecting the interests of participants. The research protected participants from any harmful effects that might arise from the research, including physical and psychological harm. All problem gamblers and individuals in debt who requested further information and help with their problems were signposted to relevant agencies.

- Enabling participation. No individual was excluded on the grounds of problems with communication or comprehension disability, or expense. Different forms of written and oral communication were used to communicate with participants where necessary.

- Maintaining confidentiality of records. The confidentiality of the identities and records of research subjects were maintained at all times. All electronic information is held on password-protected computers and hard copies of data locked securely in a research office. Both forms of data will be retained for six years, after which point all data will be destroyed safely.
