Hurling up

(that wall)

Ursula Hurley

reach
the top
just MDF
with screws in
down there your
tiny smiling face
renders sublime a peak of trust in another soul tang of chalk dries mouth and fingers red in face and reeking in pit conjuring traction from ether a toehold beyond belief precarious as diced carrot dried chunks multicoloured plastic vomit surrealist wall spattered arms on fire clawing panting 'I'm ready to come down now'
