

University of Salford
MANCHESTER

Supportive strategies for men who perform a care role : an occupational perspective

Davys, D and Collins, T
10.12968/ijtr.2018.0133

Title	Supportive strategies for men who perform a care role : an occupational perspective
Authors	Davys, D and Collins, T
Type	Article
URL	This version is available at: http://usir.salford.ac.uk/id/eprint/52418/
Published Date	2020

USIR is a digital collection of the research output of the University of Salford. Where copyright permits, full text material held in the repository is made freely available online and can be read, downloaded and copied for non-commercial private study or research purposes. Please check the manuscript for any further copyright restrictions.

For more information, including our policy and submission procedure, please contact the Repository Team at: usir@salford.ac.uk.

Table 1 overarching themes and subthemes

Overarching themes	Subthemes
Aspects of a care role	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Active care role • Negative impact of a care role • Adaptation to a care role • Positive impact of a care role
Supportive mechanisms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support from family and friends • Appropriate support from services, knowledge and information • Meaningful occupations, hobbies and interests • Support from men in a similar situation