- Debate regarding technology enhanced learning
- Understanding technical choices

Inspiring tomorrow's professionals

What do we know?

- Blended learning: traditional/e-learning
- Transforms the learning experience
- Technical skill / curriculum development / enhancing student experience
- Student expectations “anywhere anytime”
- Technology that is ubiquitous

Preliminary Investigation

- To explore institutional blockages in relation to the use and development of the VLE.
 - current practice
 - aspirations
- 14 questions to each school
- Provide a potential framework for a centralised procedure of collecting data regarding the development of the VLE and digital literacy.

Inspiring tomorrow's professionals

Findings : Preliminary Investigation

- Over ½ of the schools collected some data regarding VLE contents
- No standard process
- Unclear how data links to strategy
- Suggestion that this may impact on staff buy-in
- Data on digital literacy varies across the schools
- Sound pedagogical reasons for min compliance
- Limited responses - DL enhancing learning
- Aspirations – consistency / effective use

Auditing the VLE

- Most UK institutions have developed digital literacy policies and guidelines.
 - Framework to promote digital literacy
 - Minimum compliance
 - Staff self-evaluation to encourage on-line provision
- Criteria for auditing VLE is limited – literature
- Gap in how audit data feeds into
 - Institutional strategy
 - Enhanced student learning
 - Pedagogical good practice
 - Technical development / innovation

Inspiring tomorrow's professionals

Summary

- Standardisation
- A culture change is required to make meaningful use of the data.
- Need to use audit data to develop/inform T&L strategy.
- Impact of staff digital literacy unclear in terms of student learning.
- In certain high practical based subjects minimum use of the VLE may be best practice.

What Now?

Identify knowledge gaps in digital literacy within creative arts & humanities & establish suitable strategies to close them.

- Analyse the type and level of e-learning in the VLE
- Identify good practice
- Develop, implement strategies to support e-learning in creative arts
- Provide a potential framework for a centralised procedure of collecting data regarding the development of the VLE and digital literacy.
